The United Nations Procurement Division's Global Procurement Support Section, on behalf of United Nations Regional Office for Central Africa (UNOCA), has a requirement to erect internal partitions in aluminium and glass, at its office premises at the "La Perla" compound in the Economic Social Center neighborhood in Libreville, Gabon. Some demolition of the existing walls is also required to erect one door.

A site visit is mandatory for proposers to observe working conditions and check the floors current configuration versus future configuration, taking note of the existing materials, finishes, and also of electrical, network, and fire protection installations.

All works should be completed within a maximum time of twenty (20) working days from the date of issuance of the "Notice to Proceed" by UNOCA. Installation of aluminium and glass partitions will start only after a "Notice to Proceed" is given by the UNOCA Procurement Representative.

The Proposer must present a schedule of works, preferably a Gantt Chart, where the work to be accomplished within the specific timeframe will be detailed.
